in Construction of

Aastan-e-Rumi-o-Iqbal

Aastan-e-Rumi-o-Iqbal is being constructed on the top floor of the KIU Library at an estimated cost of Pak Rs. 5 million. It consists of a multipurpose hall (37' x 65') and a Study Room (37' x 44'). The study room will be a special section of the library containing books on Rumi, Iqbal, other mystic poets, mysticism, philosophy, comparative religion, and literature that bring people together and promote harmony, understanding and tolerance. The hall will be used to hold seminars, discussion groups, discourses and presentations.

The cost of construction will be met through contributions and donations. Help is requested from all lovers of Rumi, Iqbal, and literature of the World. Names of the donors contributing Rs. 10,000 or more will be permanently displayed on the walls of Aastan. Crossed cheques may please be made out to "Karakoram International University". Please write on the back the name, address, phone of the sender and the label "Construction of the Aastan".

Thank you for your support
